

Eastern Caribbean Cruise

Cayo Levantado • St. Maarten • Antigua • Bahamas

Day 1 Home - Ft. Lauderdale - Cruise

Depart on your flight to Ft. Lauderdale, FL. Meet the cruise staff upon embarkation and begin your seven night cruise through the Western Caribbean on the MSC Orchestra. Making its maiden voyage in 2007, this 92-ton cruise liner has 12 decks and offers restaurants, an internet center, casino, disco, movies, game arcade, full service spa, pools, mini golf, and shops to cater to your every need! Enjoy a special Captain's Welcome Dinner tonight. D

Day 2 Day at Sea

Spend the day cruising the open seas towards the Dominican Republic and the private beach of Cayo Levantado. Enjoy the fine dining and casual venues serving delicious authentic Italian fare nearly around the clock. With MSC Cruises you will not only taste the wonderful Italian cuisine but you will also be able to savor dishes that are typical of the countries you will visit, prepared with specially selected, fresh ingredients. Enjoy a renewing spa treatment, have a brisk workout in the fitness center or wind down with a yoga class. You will find no shortage of activities, dining and entertainment, all onboard your floating Caribbean hotel. B, L, D

Day 3 Cruise - Cayo Levantado

Cayo Levantado is a small stretch of land off the northeast coast of the Dominican Republic in Samaná Bay. The area offers the beauty of natural rainforest vegetation, marvellous white sand beaches and crystal clear water. Cayo Levantado, due to its location, is the perfect spot to see humpbacked whales in January, February, and March. You may choose to take a horseback ride into the mountains to get a glimpse of El Limon Waterfall, the largest of its kind in the peninsula. Or, you can take a nature tour in Los Haitises National Park, which includes a visit to the bird sanctuary as well as cave exploration to see natural formations and cave paintings by the indigenous people. B, L, D

Day 4 Cruise - Philipsburg, St. Maarten

Both the French and the Dutch claim the island of St. Maarten. The two sides of the divided island have distinct cultural characteristics. Their differences add to the charm of this Caribbean hideaway and make for some of the most delightful cuisine known throughout the world. Choose between several shore excursions which can have you riding a Harley, an ATV, a catamaran, a yacht or a horse! Tour the sights of the island and appreciate the vast beauty and character of St. Maarten. B, L, D

Day 5 Cruise - St. Johns, Antigua

Antigua is a tropical paradise boasting 365 stunning palm fringed beaches, ranging from secluded coves to long white sandy stretches. Antigua's beaches and crystal clear waters are complemented by almost year round sunshine. Having only gained independence in 1981, Antigua is steeped in colonial history. Choose from a St. Johns Highlights Tour, a Beach Break with a Caribbean BBQ lunch, an eco hike or go for a swim with the stingrays. Antigua also offers a tour onboard the Black Swan pirate ship, or head inland for a rainforest canopy tour. B, L, D

Day 6 Cruise - Day at Sea

Spend another leisurely day at sea, soaking up the sun, savoring the delicious meals, swimming in the pool and enjoying all the onboard amenities. B, L, D

Day 7 Cruise - Nassau, Bahamas

The port of Nassau is located in the northeastern part of the island of New Providence. In the North there are wonderful beaches, tourist ports, golf courses and many other venues for leisure and free time. Prized for its sheltered harbour, the city made history and preserved it beautifully in Victorian mansions, cathedrals, 18th-century fortresses and a Queen's Staircase whose 66 steps lead to a view not to be missed. Nassau is home to weather-beaten, ancient forts; elegant, noble architecture; and fine local and international crafts and goods, from handmade lengths of batik to Rolex watches. Your optional adventures include a panoramic tour of Nassau, snorkeling, a glass bottom boat cruise, or a catamaran ride. B, L, D

Day 8 Ft. Lauderdale - Home

Disembark your cruise ship and board your return flight home. B
